ANDREW LUI

Originally from Canton, China, Andrew Lui moved to Canada in 1972. Lui now lives and works in Montréal, Québec. He studied art in Italy, the United Kingdom and Canada from 1972-75. His painting career started in the early 1980's and his work is now internationally exhibited. He is part of a large number of private and corporate collections, including HSBC of Canada, DKNY and Sun Life Insurance.

Sparse and strikingly contemporary, Lui's compositions proclaim their own visual territory while his brushstroke harks at the fluidity of Eastern calligraphy.
